The mission of Houston Graduate School of Theology is empowering spiritual leadership through the intellectual, spiritual, and vocational development of men and women in order to advance the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

I. Course Description
A study of various styles of leadership and their relevance for invigorating the faith community. Particular emphasis is given to the development of individual leadership and to the organization, purpose, mission and vision required to develop and lead a faith community. This course is required for all MDiv students but is open to all.

II. Goals and Objectives
Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:
A. Analyze the threefold process of personal transformation (through quizzes, case study notes, and final exam).
B. Explain how to differentiate oneself while remaining relationally engaged (through case study notes and final exam).
C. Describe maturity and anxiety in an emotional system (through case study notes).
D. Summarize the theology of servant leadership (through final exam).
E. Identify and illustrate the attitudes and actions of leaders that influence others through relationships and with vision, values, and accountability (through Wright assignment).

III. Texts
Required Textbooks:

IV. Course Requirements
A. Very brief reading quizzes will be given at the beginning of each of the class days students are scheduled to discuss the Herrington, et al or the Allender texts. Only the best ten grades will be counted. These reading quizzes will not be offered at another time. (25% of total grade)
B. Case study notes are due for each of the twelve episode assignments. Each set of daily notes will apply specific learning from the texts and class discussion to the assigned online case study for that day. Completion of the notes will also serve as preparation for active discussion of the case by the students in class. Each set of typed notes will adhere to the following guidelines: single space, ¾ - 1 page, 12-point Times New Roman font; one-inch margins. Case study assignments will not be accepted late but can be turned in early. (40% of total grade)
C. Students will develop an Application List using Walter Wright’s Leadership model described in Relational Leadership. The list will identify ten concepts, tools, or practices that the student believes will be useful additions to his or her own understanding and practice of Christian leadership. The book will serve as a resource to the student for future reference and development. The list assignment will conform to the following specifications: one-inch margins (top, bottom, and sides), 12-point New Times Roman font, double space, one page in length. (10% of total grade)

D. A Final Exam will be offered in the form of a reflective essay at the end of the term and cover all assigned reading material and class discussion. The objective of the essay is to summarize and assess an understanding of the student’s own leadership in response to the course objectives. The paper will conform to the following specifications: one-inch margins (top, bottom, and sides), 12-point New Times Roman font, double spaced, six pages in length. (25% of total grade)

V. Grading Scale
The following grading system will be used for this class, remembering that an “A” is a superior grade, a “B” an above average grade, and a “C” is quality, satisfactory work.

A = 90-100  B = 80-89  C = 70-79  D = 60-69  F = < 60

VI. Policies
A. Regular attendance and submission of assignments on due dates in syllabus is expected. Students must talk to the instructor about circumstances affecting their ability to attend class and complete assignments. Attendance is required at scheduled classes and the scheduled start time.

B. Work is expected on the due date. Note that most assignments are not accepted after the due date although they can be submitted earlier.

C. Electronic Equipment Usage in Class
It is expected that students will use technology (cell phones, laptop computers, iPads, etc.) during classes only for the purposes of class work. Therefore, students should turn off cell phones and refrain from texting and using laptop computers during classes except for the purposes of taking notes or doing research specifically authorized by the course instructor. Students who have emergency needs not covered by this policy must ask for an exception from the course instructor.

D. Incompletes
In cases of extenuating circumstances, and at the discretion of the instructor, a student may request and apply for an extension on the reflection paper, which are not completed by the end of the semester or term, subject to a 5-point grade reduction on the final grade of each assignment. If an extension is granted, the instructor will record a grade of “I” (Incomplete) and set an extension of time, not to exceed thirty calendar days from the end of the class, within which to complete the work. Additional extensions may be granted only by the Academic Dean or Associate Dean and only after a student has petitioned the Dean in writing. If the course work is not completed within the extended time allotment, the grade of “I” will be converted to the grade earned by the student up to that point. The student is responsible to ensure that all necessary paperwork is submitted to the registrar’s office by the deadline published in the school calendar.
E. Turnitin.com Policy
1. All written assignments are subject to required submission to www.turnitin.com to check for originality and style. The assignments that are required for submission will be described in the syllabus.
2. Students will create an account at www.turnitin.com. After doing so, the student will join the course page with the code and password supplied by the instructor. A list of assignments and due dates will be available on the course page.
3. Students will submit assignments by the due date and time and may be required to submit the assignments in a hard copy format.

F. Plagiarism
Plagiarism is presenting the work of another person as one’s own without giving proper credit for the use of the information. Students must not quote books, articles, essays, or Internet sites without giving proper credit to the author(s). Students should guard against plagiarism by crediting the original author through use of proper citations. Internet plagiarism is a particularly easy and tempting form of intellectual theft. Cutting and pasting sentences and paragraphs from the Internet without citations is plagiarism. Failure to cite Internet sources is plagiarism. Any student who is found guilty of plagiarism is subject to a range of consequences as outlined below.
1. If a faculty member suspects plagiarism, the instructor will investigate. If suspicions are confirmed, the faculty member will present the evidence to the appropriate Associate Dean as a record of the offense. If the Associate Dean concurs with the allegations, the following procedures should be implemented as applicable:
   • The faculty member may discuss the offense with the student following consultation with the Associate Dean, but the student will meet with the Associate Dean.
   • For a first offense, the faculty member, in consultation with the Associate Dean, may give opportunity for a rewrite of the assignment or may assign a grade of zero for the plagiarized assignment.
   • For a particularly egregious case of plagiarism on a major assignment, the consequences could result in automatic failure of the course.
2. The student may appeal the above-mentioned decisions of the faculty member in writing to the Academic Dean.
3. The second confirmed offense will result in expulsion from school. The student will be notified by a letter from the Academic Dean. His or her only opportunity for appeal will be to the President in writing. The President’s decision will be final.

F. Library Usage
A student’s ability to get the most out of library resources will enhance the possibility of earning a high grade in this class. Therefore, students should consider using, in addition to the HGST library, one or more of the following libraries.
1. Houston Public Library—Any resident of Texas can obtain a free Houston Public Library card. Library cardholders have access to all of the books in the library system as well as the use of free interlibrary loans, meaning that HPL cardholders can borrow almost any book available. Cardholders can use the library’s website, www.houstonlibrary.org, to search the catalog and manage interlibrary loans. The website also contains links to WorldCat and other online databases that will enhance your research. The HPL location that is closest to HGST, the Collier Regional Branch (832-393-1740), is located at 6200 Pinemont, which is less than three miles from campus. A better option would be the newly expanded and
1. Renovated Central Library (832-393-1313), which is located downtown at 500 McKinney. In addition, HPL has many other locations. The HGST library can give you an application for an HPL library card, or you can print the application form from their website.

2. Fondren Library at Rice University—The Fondren Library (713-348-5113) is located at 6100 Main. Please visit www.rice.edu/fondren for more information. The procedure for borrowing books at the Fondren Library is, first, go to the online catalog [www.rice.edu/fondren] to search for available books; second, go to the HGST library and fill out a form, signed by HGST library personnel, to take with you to the Fondren Library for each book; third, retrieve the book(s) yourself; fourth, take the book(s) and the signed form to the circulation desk to complete checkout (return the yellow copy to the HGST library; when the book(s) are returned to the Fondren Library, they will indicate so on the pink and gold copies; return the pink copy to the HGST Library and keep the gold copy for your records).

3. Lanier Theological Library is a new resource for scholarly theological research in the Houston area. The library is open to the public, Monday, Wednesday-Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM, and Tuesday, 9:00 AM - 9:00 PM. The library is a research library with no circulation privileges. Nonetheless, students should consider Lanier Library to be a valuable research option. The catalog of Lanier Library is available online: http://alexandria.lanierlibrary.net/.

4. Cardinal Beran Library at St Mary’s Seminary—the home of an extensive theological library, St Mary’s Seminary (713-686-4345) is located at 9845 Memorial Drive, only 4.6 miles from HGST. For more information, please visit http://beran.stthom.edu. The Doherty Library on the main campus of University of St Thomas is also an option.

5. Library of the Presbytery of the New Covenant—as an HGST student you have borrowing privileges at this library located at 1110 Lovett Blvd, Houston. To search their online catalog, go to http://www.pbtyofnewcovenant.org/cgi-bin/rqm/rqm.cgi.

6. Other options include Harris County Public Library (www.hcpl.net) and the libraries at the University of Houston and Houston Baptist University.

VII. Notes for Writing Assignments

A. Writing assignments should conform to Kate Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 7th Edition. This includes matters of style and format. Counseling students should pay particular attention to the Manual guidelines on submission of academic papers.

B. Writing assignments should conform to Kate Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 7th Edition. This includes matters of style and format. Counseling students should pay particular attention to the Manual guidelines on submission of academic papers.

C. The instructor requires the use of footnotes for documentation. The student should number pages. According to Turabian, page numbers should be in the upper right hand corner, except for the first page of the paper (not counting the title page). Margins should be one inch on all four sides, except where major headings require a two-inch top margin.

D. The student should utilize 12-point Times New Roman font throughout. The instructor prefers that the student not use presentation or report binders or folders. He prefers submission of papers with staples.
VIII.  Class and Reading Schedule

Selected readings should be completed prior to class discussion of the assignment.
